BIRD SHOT FOR BOLD BURGLAR

Cached Loot Brings Thief Back to Scene of Robbery Where Owner of House Receives Him with Both Barrels of Shotgun.

For the second time within two or three weeks, the Pope residence at 1914 West Buchanan street was burglarized sometime Saturday night. Report of the burglary was made early yesterday morning to the police and Policeman Barnum was detailed to the job. Careful search on the part of Barnum revealed that the burglar had removed a quantity of flour, bacon and other cooking material from the house. It was found hidden in the brush not far from the house.

Having located the loot, the policeman instructed Mr. Pope to be on the lookout for the return of the burglar, who would probably come for the goods sometime Sunday after dark. The policeman said he would be on hand just about sundown to take up the watch. But the burglar returned before the time set for Barnum to begin his vigil. Pope, however, was on guard and when the man approached the hidden goods, Pope covered him with a shotgun and ordered him to throw up his hands. The burglar complied, but an instant later thought better of it and started to run. Pope thereupon let go with both barrels and believes he landed some bird shot in the intruder's back and legs. This, however, did not stop him and he quickly disappeared.

Pope says there is little doubt but that the man will have to seek medical attention as he must have no small number of shot reposing an inch or so under his skin.

CONGRESSMAN HAYDEN IS BACK FROM TRIP

He and Mrs. Hayden Made Summer Auto Tour of Arizona

Congressman Carl Hayden and Mrs. Hayden returned yesterday from a tour of the northern part of the state, which occupied just two months and one day. In that time they visited so many places between this section and the northern boundaries of Arizona, it would be easier to name the places they did not visit than to enumerate those at which they stopped.

For a short time they were at Prescott, then they were at Flagstaff, Winslow, Kingman, Jerome and St. Johns. They camped on some of the mountains and at others they were guests of friends or stopped at hotels.

For the next few weeks the Haydens will remain here and become acquainted with their old friends. Both Congressman and Mrs. Hayden are enjoying excellent health and expressed themselves as greatly pleased with the trip that kept them at all times within the borders of their own state.

On the Watch

Brown—How'd you get along ridin' in them sleepin' cars when you took your trip?

Jones—Got along all right, but I caught a colored fellow trying to sneak away with my boots and made him bring 'em back.
